

Diversity bridges gaps, youth inclusion builds futures, and women's development sparks transformative change..

– HABIBAH A. WAZIRI

As a pan-African strategist and ecosystem builder of systems, platforms, and partnerships that power economic development across Africa. She serves as the Managing Director of BGR Consulting, operating in Nigeria, Rwanda & Ghana; where she has led talent development strategies & business growth roadmaps for startups, MSMEs, and multinationals. Her work has enabled the upskilling of over 5,000 beneficiaries & catalyzed strategic expansion across sectors from technology to natural resources to telecoms.

Also, as the Co-Founder of the HERitage Collective. — a bold community aims to close the gap between access & ambition for emerging female leaders in Africa & in the diaspora. Launched at the #UNGA and amplified at the largest business gathering on the continent; HER.Circle — its flagship program convening influential and emerging women leaders for intentional dialogue redefining access and leadership for African women in business, development, and diplomacy.

Through public speaking, Habibah engages with global platforms to address representation gaps in critical dialogues, underscoring the vital role of diverse voices in driving economic growth with the belief that accelerating African women into leadership roles is critical to the continent's future. She currently serves on advisory boards in Nigeria, Rwanda, and the United Kingdom.
