

Habibah is a prominent strategist dedicated to building ecosystems at the intersection of people, purpose, and performance to propel economic development. As Managing Director of BGR Consulting, she serves as the "operational engine room" for multinational corporations and government entities, spearheading the end-to-end operationalization of national agencies and market-entry strategies across Nigeria, Ghana, and Rwanda.

As the Co-Founder of HERitage Collective, a transcontinental platform centered on proving a critical hypothesis: "that the systemic undervaluation of African women is a market failure driven by a lack of pricing transparency". By replacing internal bias with data-driven market valuation, she is transitioning female leadership into a bankable asset class "HERitage®" with direct proximity to over $1 Billion in investable capital at global forums like UNGA, WEF, Africa CEO Forum, etc.

Currently serving on multiple advisory boards and representing Nigeria as the Youth Envoy to the Developing-8, Habibah remains an architect of the systems that position Africans as a global leaders in the new economic era.
